LMT

2/1/16

A little about LMT

- LMT is a little rough around the edges. The director is a vodo priest. However, he is open to the gospel message and wants the kids to learn about Jesus (they have Bible studies each week with on of our translators). The kids are a little more naughty than the other orphanages, we believe it is because they are not in a Christian environment. With that said, the director does seem to really love the kids and watch over them to the best of his ability.
- LMT is also the dirtiest of all the orphanages. They have a nice space, but dirt floors and an outside fire pit for cooking make everything dusty.
- Most the kids at LMT have parents who just cannot care for them. The director wants to reach them a trade before they leave the orphanage.
- School for younger kids is help at the orphanage but. Older kids go to school outside the orphanage.
